A LOVE STORY

What is the bible? That sounds like a simple enough question, but there really are many answers, and some of them are at odds with others.

Most of us would say that the bible is a book; after all, it's a collection of pages bound between two covers. But, in reality, the bible is many books. In fact, the word bible literally means library. For Protestants, the bible is a library that contains sixty-six books, from Genesis to Revelation. This library is divided into two sections: the Hebrew scripture (Old Testament) with thirty-nine books, and the Christian scripture (New Testament) with twenty-seven books. But the Roman Catholic bible counts six more books in the Old Testament. These are later books of the Old Testament. Because they were written in Greek rather than Hebrew, Martin Luther judged them unworthy and removed them. We now call them the Apocrypha, or obscure books. So, for us, they are more of an appendix than a third section.

Technically, this is what the bible is. But what purpose does it serve, and what does it mean? Some read it naively as a contemporary account of fact with modern understandings of the world (the scientific method, cause and effect, etc.) In this approach, the bible becomes a science book, and we get caught up in arguments about when the world was created and how long that creation took. Some also read it as a rule book for living. And some treasure it as divine in itself.

What is our tradition's approach to the bible? We understand that the bible is ancient, not contemporary...that it is more interested in meaning rather than mechanics, persuasion rather than proof...that it is not holy in itself, but is a faithful witness to the holiness of our God...that it is not a rule book, but a love story.

And that's where I invite you to invest your hearts in the coming weeks. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 18th. Join us for worship at GCC; either at 7:00 a.m. or 7:30 p.m. in our sanctuary. The word Lent really means lengthen, because the days are growing longer in this season. So Lent is just another name for Spring. Spiritually, Lent is also a time for lengthening...for lengthening our time with God in worship, contemplation, study and prayer.

That means that it's a time to read the bible as a story...as a love story...as the story of God's love for each and all of us that never fails. What does it mean for us that God loves us? What does it mean for us that God makes love perfect in the humanity of Jesus? What does it mean for us to become human as Jesus is human?

Join us at GCC as we plumb the depths... as we lengthen our time with God in this Lent. It is a beautiful, gentle season. It is an irreversible journey that takes us to the devastation of the cross and the magnificence of Easter morning. We have much to welcome and learn together of God's love. We have much to offer and share of God's love for others.

See you in church!

Chuck Mize

ADULT EDUCATION

ADULT EDUCATION SUNDAY

Adult Education in February: "Southern Trails to Social Justice"

Late in 2013, Allan Ruter drove a 2300-mile route from Glenview through Mississippi and Alabama to visit seminal sites in the Civil Rights Movement from 1955 to 1965. On both major thoroughfares and back-country roads he visited cities, towns, and hamlets as well as homes, businesses, and churches where history literally happened and a generation of heroes emerged.

Join Allan for "Southern Trails to Social Justice," a pair of Sunday morning multimedia seminars at 9 a.m. in The Chapel, offered in conjunction with 2015 Black History Month. On February 15, "Civil Rights Highways and Byways, Fifty Years Later" will take you to Oxford, the Delta region, and Jackson, Mississippi, and from there on to Alabama's Selma-to-Montgomery road—locales which intersected with the lives of James Meredith, Fannie Lou Hamer, Emmett Till, Medgar Evers, Rosa Parks, and Martin Luther King, Jr.

On February 22, "What Happened in Birmingham" will focus on those six months in 1963 when, as one commentator put it, "Hell broke loose in America's most segregated city." Out of violent Lenten protests and Good Friday arrests, Martin Luther King wrote his landmark "Letter from Birmingham Jail"; five months later, four young girls were killed in the Sunday bombing of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church.

COMMON GROUND

Common Ground Glenview is hosted by the Glenview Community Church. Lectures are usually held on the 3rd Wednesday of the month, from 7:00-9:00 p.m. in the Founders Room. $10.

Ms. Day will also lead a demonstration of peace circle - restorative justice practices after church at 11:30 a.m. in the Founders Room for those who want to experience how restorative justice works.

ADULT EDUCATION

The Adult Education Board is looking for folks interested in joining the board. We plan presentations for the adult members (generally people over 18 years) of our congregation and attempt to provide varied and interesting subjects from both religious and secular fields and a variety of points of view. We are looking for members who are interested in engaging our adults in continued education about our church and the world in which we live. We strive to provide topics of interest to all age groups and encourage participation of younger members by providing child care on Sunday mornings.

Our typical programming occurs on Sunday from 9-10:00 a.m. in the Chapel at church. From time to time we schedule special speakers on Wednesday evenings and have sponsored the group Common Ground for the past several years. Traditionally, Adult Education plans occasional book study groups and an Advent and/or Lenten study. We also help to maintain the church library by providing funds for the purchase of new books and audio-visual materials by the church librarian.

If you would like more information about what we do and how we do it, please contact our current chair, Mike Rapp at rappm@comcast.net or 847-486-1406. We also welcome suggestions for programs and volunteers willing to make presentations
