THANKS INDEED

Some of you know by now that a little-known poem by Grace Noll Crowell is the text for one of my favorite hymns. Because I Have Been Given Much expresses the joy of Christian stewardship and the spirit of our stewardship theme, Blessed to be a Blessing, better than any other text I know. The third verse concludes this way:

*I shall give love to those in need,
Shall show that love by word and deed;
thus shall my thanks be thanks indeed.*

Thanks puts the lie to the myth of scarcity. It's our abundant response to God's abundance for us. It's loving others decisively because God loves us completely. It's making thanksgiving not just an annual day for feasting but a way of living. As we prepare for that annual day of feasting, I want to lift up several things for which I am thankful.

I am thankful for those who embody the Spirit of God and allow God's Spirit to live through their lives. Sunday, November 23rd is Thanksgiving Sunday and the last Sunday of the Christian year. On this Sunday in worship we will give thanks for those whose earthly journey has come to an end in the past year, remembering especially those who were a part of the Glenview Community Church and to whom the Glenview Community Church ministered. Those for whom we will give thanks are:

Names will be read and a candle will be lit for each person. If you have someone you would like to include who has died in the past year, please contact me at chuck.mize@gccucc.org.

I am thankful for the leadership of our church in the Spiritual Council. After months of careful work and discussion, the Spiritual Council has entered into a two year trial period that clarifies the relationship between the church and the Glenview Community Church Nursery School (GCCNS). GCCNS has always been an organic part of GCC. The trial makes our relationship more transparent and direct by making the GCCNS Board the thirteenth board of the church.

I am thankful to Beth Raebel who is directing our Christmas Pageant – The Nativity – for her 15th and final time. Beth has carried this beloved tradition forward in sensitive and caring ways. Thank you, Beth! And many thanks to C. J. Sultz who will succeed Beth as the Director of the Pageant!

After spending two weeks in Israel, Palestine and Jordan, I am especially thankful to Hands of Peace for the amazing work of peace that this remarkable organization is inspiring in the young people of Palestine, Israel and the United States. The conflict between Palestine and Israel seems nearly intractable, but because of Hands of Peace there is great hope. The courage, hope and love of the HOP alumni in that region is humbling and inspiring.

Finally, I am grateful to be walking with each of you in the Glenview Community Church as we embrace and embody the future of God's love in this time and place. This congregation makes a difference within

RECAP

2014 GCC/HOP TRIP TO ISRAEL/ PALESTINE

We're back, and finally recovering from jet lag and time changes. What an extraordinary and thought-provoking trip we had to Israel/Palestine! Only now can we begin to process our impressions of the political, cultural, and theological currents that swirl in this surprisingly small country - smaller than the state of New Jersey. One of my highlights was touching the 2000 year old stones of the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem's Old City. You can feel the power of the prayers, tears, and praise of God expressed there by thousands of faithful of all types and from all over the world. Another high point was experiencing the courage, joy, and determination of HOP alums and their families as we celebrated the end of our trip in Haifa. Our incredible guides and unique experiences provided us with such a richness of information which we would love to share with you. Stop by coffee hour the next two Sundays to hear about our experiences with Tent of Nations. Soon, we hope to put together a travelogue so you can feel a little bit of the complexity of life in the Near East for yourself.

Peace, Shalom, Salaam, Betsy Martin, 2014 GCC/HOP Tour Co-chair

Olive Trees for Peace

You can give the sponsorship of an olive tree planted in an orchard 10 kilometers from Bethlehem as a Christmas gift. Participants in the Hands of Peace trip to Israel will sell trees for $10 each during coffee hour on November 16 and 23.

The Israel trip included a visit and lunch with Daoud Nassar at his Tent of Nations (TON), on the farm in Palestine that his grandfather bought in 1916. The TON motto, "We refuse to be enemies," reflects Daoud's commitment to live out his Christian faith by loving his neighbors in the face of relentless harassment from the Israeli government, which wants his west bank land for expansion of the settlements that already bracket it on two sides.

Daoud brings together people from many different countries and cultures to build bridges of understanding, reconciliation, and peace.

The long-term goal of TON is to prepare youth to make positive contributions to their future and society through the values of understanding, tolerance and respectful coexistence.

The farmland is under threat of confiscation by the Israeli military, and just before harvest last spring, the military bulldozed 300 fruit trees and the terraces on which they were planted. This is just the most recent outrage visited on Daoud, his family and the farm to which he has documented title. Purchasing a tree will help to re-plant the destroyed orchard and strengthen Daoud's claim to the land by restoring it to productivity.

To learn more about this oasis of peace in the desert, visit their website at tentofnations.org. For a better understanding of the strength of Daud's Christianity, see the film at austinstone.org/stories/film/39--love-your-enemies.

STEWARDSHIP 2015

Sharing God's Bountiful Blessings

STEWARDSHIP 2015

I will bless you...so that you will be a blessing...and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed (Genesis 12:2-3).

Sunday, November 9, was Commitment Sunday! We celebrated the culmination of our 2015 Stewardship Campaign as we dedicated your financial commitment to GCC's present and future message, ministries and mission to do God's work in the church, the community and the world! Thanks for your joyful and enthusiastic support of our Stewardship Campaign!

If you haven't yet made your 2015 commitment, there's still time. If you're still wondering what your share of our $1.1 million stewardship goal will be.....or whether you are able to make a commitment at all, consider this:

Jesus said, "I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture....I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly." (John 10:10).

Glenview Community Church is a living church! Each Sunday morning our pastors lead worship with inspiring, thought-provoking sermons. Our worship themes are coordinated with meditative prayer which opens our minds and beautiful music which touches our hearts, bringing each of us into the presence of God's unconditional love. There's a palpable spirit of love, joy and welcome for all God's people.

Within the church there are vital support services for all ages—seniors, young adults, children and youth, toddlers and newborn infants. These services take many forms: education, social activities, pastoral care, baptisms, weddings, funerals.

There is also the opportunity to become involved in a myriad of ministries and missions to serve in the church, the community and the world. At GCC we are blessed to be a blessing to all God's people.

How can we ensure that GCC's message, ministries and mission will continue to grow and provide vital opportunities to make a difference in the lives of our congregation, our community and our world? By giving thanks for God's blessings in our lives, sharing those blessings with others, and becoming a blessing for all God's people.

Consider God's bountiful blessings in your life.....and pass them on bountifully and joyfully! Amen.

Your Stewardship Board
